

4.- Amendment to the Abstract of Disclosure:

-Below, the Applicant submits an Amendment to the Abstract of Disclosure respectfully requesting the replacement of the Abstract in the Specification previously submitted

(57) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (MARKED-UP VERSION)

Dancing toy lollipop, ~~which comprises~~comprising one or more ~~movable candy pieces~~candies of diverse sizes, shapes, colors and flavors, provided with an interior-assembling cavity into which is inserted one end of a stick, which can be reusable, provided with-suitable~~held by retaining means, in such a way, that on a suitable holder, being said pieces~~candies free to move in relation to the stick, independently, inside the user's mouth, or as like a simple toy for kids, whenever it is ~~flipped, shaken or revolved~~ conveniently moved by the user's hand, resembling ~~jingle bells or random dancing movements, or even rattlesnakes, being the holder either washable and reusable or disposable, including the optional attachment of a special handle or a rocking base with sound and/or light emission. This and this~~ toy lollipop can be supplied assembled or unassembled ~~in kits, in kits with separate pieces,~~pieces properly packaged for protection and hygienic handling, simplifying its manufacturing, and adding to the user's amusement and entertainment, the option to assemble the toy lollipop-procedure by him/her-self in a great variety of combinations, ~~and as well as providing~~propitiating many alternate and attractive designs for its components.

Please, refer to the clean version of the Amendment to the Abstract included in the attached Appendix